SEARCH CONSULTANTS

When choosing the right partner, Adkisson Search Consultants find that our goal is to develop long-term relationships with clients that result in a high level of repeat business and distinguished list of long-term clients and employees.

We develop a long-term relationship with our clients that is based on mutual respect and commitment.

We accept only those searches we are confident can be filled in today's market conditions. If Adkisson Search Consultants accepts your search, it is because we are certain we can meet your expectations.

In short, we promise only what we can deliver. We believe commitment is the key to the success of each search. We refuse to accept business from your competition. Industry ethics prohibit a firm from recruiting candidates away from its own clients. Our controlled client list maximizes our access to the overall candidate pool.

UNMATCHED SERVICE

Partnering with Adkisson Search Consultants is truly a collaborative experience. When you partner with Adkisson Search Consultants, you will be guaranteed the firm's most experienced consultants who have the dedication, knowledge, integrity and sense of urgency needed to successfully fill your search.

Each search benefits from an entire team of resources. These teams are continually networking to build contacts on a nationwide scale. We not only have access to a vast pool of candidates with which we network, but also the resources to cover it thoroughly. Whether you are seeking a senior-level executive, a new physician or a physician assistant, one Account Manager will be assigned to coordinate your search activities. You will only need to remember one name and make one call for information.

Communication is the backbone of our service. Your Account Manager will maintain frequent contact, providing updates on the status of each search.

In this ever-changing business environment, it is critical to have a search firm that you can trust to deliver the right leaders and medical staff for your organization. We pride ourselves in being our clients' most trusted advisor and we work in conjunction with you to ensure you get the right person for the job.

You want results, and when you need outside help, you want a firm with standards as high as your own.

When you choose Adkisson Search Consultants as your recruitment partner, you're choosing experienced professionals who add a personal touch to a proven process. You're choosing the best the industry has to offer in terms of Quality, Service and Reliability. And that adds up to exceptional Value.
